Services Provided by Vertex Roofing in Park City Utah

---

We can provide a number of different services in the Park City area. These include:

Roof Inspections

Whether you just had a recent storm or you have an aging roof, it's important to have your roof inspected by a professional roofing company. Our team at Vertex Roofing excels at providing top-notch roof inspections aimed at your specific needs. During a roof inspection, we'll:

- Look for exposed or broken nails
- Check for damaged flashing
- Examine the gutters and surrounding areas
- Check for rust and erosion
- Inspect areas that are prone to leaks
- Look for signs of algae growth
- Inspect drains and downspouts
- And more!

New Roof Installation

---

One of our main services is the installation of new roofs. This is a complicated process that has direct impacts on everything that is underneath it. For this reason, find professional roofing contractors who will do this job right the first time.

Roof Repair and Maintenance Services

We also provide a wide array of roofing repair and maintenance services. Sometimes, a shingle flies off, the roof begins to look, or a hole is opened up in the roof by severe weather. Everyone wants to have their roof repaired as quickly as possible. We can make this happen.

Of course, we also provide maintenance services. Roofing maintenance from a professional roofing company is a key part of preventing damage from happening in the first place. Count on us to take care of your roof.

Roof Replacement Services

Sometimes, the roof might be so damaged that it is better to replace it than to try to repair it. In other cases, the roof might be old and outdated and someone is looking to renovate. Regardless of the reason why we can make this replacement process happen without a hitch. Rely on us to make this happen.
